

The Dungeness Estate

The Dungeness Estate is a privately owned estate that is of international importance for nature conservation, and of historical interest. You are entering the estate entirely at your own risk and the landowner accepts no liability for any loss or damage. We hope that you enjoy your visit, but ask you to respect the estate so that it continues to provide habitat for important and rare species. Please keep safe and note all safety warnings.

- Keep to roads and footpaths
- Note paths are uneven with numerous tripping hazards
- Beware of traffic
- Observe speed restrictions
- Wear appropriate clothing and footwear
- Protect plants and animals, and take your litter home
- Keep dogs under control
- No filming or professional photography without written authorisation
- No drones
- No fires, camping or overnight camper vans

Please respect the privacy of residents 24hr Helpdesk: 0844 7369654

November 2016